Happenings!

Accreditation!!!! Kangaroo Kids has achieved national accreditation from NAEYC (National Association of Young Children). Do you know exactly what that means? Barbara Willer, a spokesperson for NAEYC says, "The heart of NAEYC accreditation focuses on the child's experience. The process carefully considers all aspects of a program including health and safety, staff qualifications and interactions, curriculum and physical environment. The greatest emphasis is on the children's relationships with the staff and how the program helps each child grow and learn intellectually, physically, socially and emotionally. The NAEYC torch of excellence is only allowed to be displayed by schools that have achieved national accreditation! Only 7% of centers nationwide have achieved accreditation! We are one of the few school in Branchburg and all the surrounding areas of Bridgewater, Whitehouse, and Somerville to achieve this elite status!

School Photos are taken each year so you can share the memories of your preschool experiences with family and friends.
