

Join Us for Parent-Teacher Conferences!

Parent-Teacher Conferences are held every January, but may be held more frequently upon parental request. These conferences provide for a great opportunity for you to talk with your child's teacher about what your child is learning in school and how these academics can be supported and carried out at home.

